Community Engagement and Consultation Service:

INFORMING SOCIAL POLICY

There's no mistaking what must happen:

Government can no longer take key policy decisions without first having conversations with people who will be affected by the decisions

Department of Health,
Social Services and Public Safety

Conversations means consultation and the consultation process is complex, particularly when it involves access to the opinions and concerns of 'hard to reach' marginalised community groups.

For statutory, voluntary, or private organisations seeking effective consultation Community Direct's Consultation Service is the answer.

From initial access to final report,
we can deliver it all.

We have a network of community based, professionally trained Facilitators located throughout Northern Ireland.

Working at the heart of communities

With their expertise and a flexible, responsive organisational infrastructure, the service is strategically placed to obtain those views vital to public/social policy formulation and implementation.
